

Ira Singhal

03 April 2025

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- You started the presentation with a personal and relatable story, which effectively sets the context for your venture, AliveHeart
- You clearly and confidently stated your identity as a genderqueer individual and introduced your co-founder, Sada Khan, which showcases your comfort and pride in your identity
- You effectively conveyed the mission and purpose of AliveHeart, highlighting its comprehensive and inclusive healthcare services for the LGBTQIA community, which demonstrates your passion and commitment to the cause

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- You could improve by providing more specific examples of how AliveHeart's services will address the unique needs of the LGBTQIA community, which would make your presentation more convincing
- You mentioned 'LGBTQIA-threatened healthcare', which could be rephrased to 'LGBTQIA-inclusive healthcare' or 'healthcare for the LGBTQIA community' to make it more accurate and clear
- You could benefit from providing more details about the 'wealth of educational resources' offered by AliveHeart, such as what topics they cover and how they will be made accessible
- You could improve by discussing potential challenges or obstacles that AliveHeart may face and how you plan to overcome them, which would demonstrate your preparedness and strategic thinking
- You could consider providing a clear call-to-action or next steps for the audience, such as how they can get involved or support AliveHeart's mission, which would encourage engagement and participation

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Items to look out for	Middle Column	5 point scale / Answer
1.	Did the speaker speak with confidence? • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energetic Start	Excellent	Good Satisfactory Good Poor
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume while delivering the speech/presentation?	Good	You maintained a good tone and varied your speed and volume while delivering the speech, although a few words were pronounced very quickly.
3.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	Satisfactory	8/10
4.	Was the overall "Objective" of the speech delivered clearly?	Excellent	9/10
5.	Was the content of the presentation/speech brief and to the point, or did it include unnecessary details that may have distracted or confused the audience?	Satisfactory	8/10
6.	Was the content of the presentation/speech engaging, and did it capture the audience's attention?	Excellent	9/10
7.	Was the content of the presentation/speech relevant to the objective of the presentation?	Excellent	You presented a clear and relevant narrative that aligned with the objective of your presentation, highlighting the importance of AliveHeart and its mission to support the LGBTQIA community.
8.	Was the content of the presentation/speech clear and easy to understand?	Excellent	Your content was clear and easy to understand, allowing the audience to follow your presentation without difficulty.
9.	Did the speaker add relevant examples, anecdotes and data to back their content?	Excellent	You effectively used personal anecdotes and experiences to support your content and make it more relatable to the audience.
10.	Did the speaker demonstrate credibility? Will you trust the speaker?	Excellent	You demonstrated credibility through your passion and personal connection to the topic, making you a trustworthy speaker.
11.	Did the speaker clearly explain how the speech or topic would benefit you and what you could gain from it?	Excellent	You clearly explained how AliveHeart can benefit the community and what individuals can gain from it, which was effective in conveying the value of your venture.

12.	Was the speaker able to evoke an emotional connection with the audience?	Excellent	You were able to evoke an emotional connection with the audience by sharing personal experiences and highlighting the challenges faced by the LGBTQIA community.
13.	Overall, were you convinced/ persuaded with the speaker's view on the topic?	Excellent	Overall, you presented a convincing and persuasive argument, effectively conveying your vision and mission for AliveHeart.