

Lakshya

29 May 2025

Influence Quotient: 78/100

Overall Evaluation Summary

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- You delivered a strong and personal introduction, sharing your story and experiences, which helps to establish a connection with the audience
- You effectively communicated the mission and vision of AliveHeart, highlighting its unique features and services, such as specialized daily health consultations and mental health support
- You showed confidence and passion when talking about the importance of inclusive healthcare services for the LGBTQIA community, and your commitment to empathy and empowerment for the community is evident

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- You could improve by providing more specific examples of how AliveHeart's services have made a positive impact on the community, to help illustrate the effectiveness of the platform
- You may want to consider adding more details about the educational resources offered by AliveHeart, such as workshops or online courses, to give a clearer understanding of the scope of services
- You could benefit from discussing potential challenges or obstacles that AliveHeart may face, and how you plan to overcome them, to demonstrate your problem-solving skills
- You should avoid using phrases that may come across as overly promotional, such as 'revolutionizing LGBTQIA-threatened healthcare', and instead focus on the specific ways in which AliveHeart is addressing the healthcare gap
- You may want to consider providing more information about your co-founder, Sada Khan, and their role in the venture, to give a more complete understanding of the team behind AliveHeart

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Items to look out for	5 point Scale	Remarks / Feedback
1.	Did the speaker speak with confidence? • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energetic Start	4	Good Satisfactory Good Poor
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume?	3	You maintained a good tone and volume, though you could refine your speed to ensure clarity on certain words.
3.	Did they use any gestures with their hands or body while speaking?	3	You did incorporate gestures and maintained good posture and eye contact, but adding more enthusiasm at the start would have further engaged your audience.
4.	Did they have expressions on their faces?	3	Yes, your facial expressions supported your message and conveyed a genuine warmth.
5.	Who are you and what are your skills, expertise, personality traits ?	2	You effectively introduced yourself, your venture, and your identity in a way that highlighted your personal motivations and passion.
6.	Why are you the best person to fit this role?	2	You are well-suited for this role because your personal experiences and commitment to inclusive healthcare align closely with its requirements.
7.	How are you different from others?	4	You stand out by drawing on your lived experiences and showing genuine empathy for marginalized communities.
8.	What value do you bring to the role?	4	You bring an authentic commitment to closing healthcare gaps, blending empathy with a clear vision for inclusive and comprehensive services.
9.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	4	Your speech began with a relatable account, provided solid information on your platform, and ended with a firm invitation for collaboration, forming a coherent structure.

10.	How was the quality of research for the topic? Did the student's speech demonstrate a good depth? Did they cite the sources of research properly?	3	You showed strong awareness of LGBTQIA-specific challenges; however, explicitly citing data or sources could have bolstered your credibility further.
11.	How creatively did the student present the video?	3	You presented your ideas creatively, combining personal storytelling with practical solutions, though the addition of more dynamic elements could enhance engagement.
12.	How convinced were you with the overall speech on the topic? Was it persuasive? Will you give them the job/opportunity?	4	Your earnest approach and persuasive appeal made a convincing case, and I would strongly consider you for the position due to your dedication and clarity of purpose.