

Ayush
30 July 2025

Influence Quotient: 88/100

Overall Evaluation Summary

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- You effectively started the presentation by highlighting a significant statistic about seniors, which grabbed the audience's attention
- You clearly articulated the problems faced by seniors, such as loneliness and depression, and presented a solution in the form of The Smiling Souls platform
- You demonstrated a strong passion for the mission and a deep understanding of the target audience, which is essential for the success of the project

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- You could improve by providing more specific details about the platform's features and services, such as how the daily interactive sessions and virtual events are conducted

- You could benefit from including more data and statistics to support the claims made about the Indian senior market and the potential for scalability and revenue growth
- You could enhance the presentation by providing a clearer outline of the business model and revenue streams, as well as the potential for AI integration
- You could work on providing more concise and direct answers to questions, such as the one about why the audience should invest in The Smiling Souls
- You could improve by avoiding repetitive phrases, such as the multiple 'thank you's at the end of the presentation, and instead conclude with a stronger call to action or final thought

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Items to look out for	5 point Scale	Remarks / Feedback
1.	Did the speaker speak with confidence? • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energetic Start	3	Satisfactory Satisfactory Good Poor
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume?	3	You maintained a good tone, however, your speed of delivery was somewhat fast, and a few words were pronounced very quickly, which could be worked on for better clarity.
3.	Did they use any gestures with their hands or body while speaking?	3	You used some gestures with your hands and body while speaking, but your posture could be improved for a more confident appearance, and you did maintain good eye contact.
4.	Did they have expressions on their faces?	3	You had some expressions on your face, including a smile, which added to your overall presentation.
5.	Who are you and what are your skills, expertise, personality traits ?	4	You were able to introduce yourself, your skills, and your personality traits, including your compassion, care, and empathy, which are valuable assets.
6.	Why are you the best person to fit this role?	4	You are a strong candidate for this role because you have a personal connection to the mission and a clear passion for helping seniors, which drives your motivation.
7.	How are you different from others?	4	You are different from others because of your unique blend of business, technology, and community-building skills, which you have applied to create a scalable solution for seniors.
8.	What value do you bring to the role?	4	You bring a deep understanding of the senior market and its needs, as well as a strong foundation in technology and community building, which can drive the success of your platform.

9.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	4	Your speech had a clear structure, starting with a problem statement, followed by a body that outlined your solution and its benefits, and concluding with a call to action, which was effective in conveying your message.
10.	How was the quality of research for the topic? Did the student's speech demonstrate a good depth? Did they cite the sources of research properly?	4	Your research on the topic was thorough, and you demonstrated a good depth of understanding of the senior market and its needs, although you could have cited more sources to support your claims.
11.	How creatively did the student present the video?	4	You presented your video in a creative and engaging way, using a mix of statistics, personal anecdotes, and descriptions of your platform to keep the audience interested.
12.	How convinced were you with the overall speech on the topic? Was it persuasive? Will you give them the job/opportunity?	4	I was convinced by your overall speech, and you presented a persuasive case for why your platform is needed and how it can make a positive impact, which makes me inclined to consider you for the opportunity.