

Ayush
30 July 2025

Influence Quotient: 86/100

Overall Evaluation Summary

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- You delivered a clear and concise message about the problem and solution for seniors
- Your transcription shows that you have a strong passion for helping seniors, which is evident in the way you describe the issues they face
- You have a well-structured presentation that starts with a problem statement, followed by a solution, and ends with a call to action, which shows your ability to organize your thoughts

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- You could improve by providing more specific data and statistics to support your claims, for example, you mention that 55% of seniors are battling loneliness and boredom, but you don't provide a source for this information

- You could benefit from breaking up your sentences into shorter, more manageable chunks, some of your sentences are quite long and convoluted, which can make them hard to follow
- You use transitional phrases such as 'Why me?' and 'Why would you invest in the smiling souls?' which shows that you are trying to engage with your audience, but you could use more of these phrases to make your presentation more dynamic
- You could provide more details about your business plan, such as how you intend to generate revenue, and what your marketing strategy will be
- You could also provide more information about your target audience, such as what specific needs they have, and how your solution will meet those needs

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Items to look out for	5 point Scale	Remarks / Feedback
1.	Did the speaker speak with confidence? • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energetic Start	3	Satisfactory Satisfactory Good Poor
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume?	3	You maintained a good tone, however, your speaking speed was somewhat rapid, which made a few words difficult to understand.
3.	Did they use any gestures with their hands or body while speaking?	3	You used some gestures with your hands and body while speaking, although your posture could be improved for a more engaging presentation.
4.	Did they have expressions on their faces?	3	You had a moderate number of expressions on your face, including a occasional smile.
5.	Who are you and what are your skills, expertise, personality traits ?	4	You were able to introduce yourself, highlighting your skills and personality traits, particularly your compassion and empathy.
6.	Why are you the best person to fit this role?	4	You performed well in showcasing your passion for the cause, which makes you a strong fit for this role, especially with your experience and skills in business, technology, and community building.
7.	How are you different from others?	4	You are different from others in your ability to combine profit, purpose, and social impact, making your startup, The Smiling Souls, a unique and powerful blend.
8.	What value do you bring to the role?	4	You bring a deep understanding of the senior market and its needs, as well as a strong foundation in technology and community building, which can drive scalable and human-centered solutions.

9.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	4	Your speech had a clear structure, starting with a hook, followed by a detailed body, and ending with a persuasive conclusion, making it easy to follow and understand.
10.	How was the quality of research for the topic? Did the student's speech demonstrate a good depth? Did they cite the sources of research properly?	4	Your research on the topic demonstrated a good depth of understanding, particularly in highlighting the issues faced by seniors and the potential for technology to address these challenges, although sources were not explicitly cited.
11.	How creatively did the student present the video?	4	You presented the video in a fairly creative way, using a mix of statistics, personal experiences, and visions for the future, which kept the audience engaged.
12.	How convinced were you with the overall speech on the topic? Was it persuasive? Will you give them the job/opportunity?	3	I was moderately convinced by your overall speech, and while it was somewhat persuasive, there were moments where a stronger tone and more confident delivery would have made a more significant impact, making me consider you for the opportunity.