

Ayush
30 July 2025

Influence Quotient: 86/100

Overall Evaluation Summary

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- You clearly presented the problem statement and its relevance to the target audience, which is the senior population
- You effectively communicated the features and benefits of The Smiling Souls platform, showcasing its potential to address the issues faced by seniors
- You demonstrated a strong passion and mission-driven approach towards creating a positive impact on the senior community, which is evident in your words and the overall presentation

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- You could improve by providing more specific data and statistics to support your claims about the senior market and the potential of The Smiling Souls platform

- You had a few abrupt transitions between sentences, which could be smoothed out to improve the overall flow of the presentation
- You could benefit from providing more details about your background and expertise in business, technology, and community building to establish credibility
- You could elaborate more on the technical aspects of the platform, such as the AI integration and data analytics, to demonstrate a deeper understanding of the technology
- You may want to consider providing a clearer call-to-action or a specific ask from the audience, whether it's investment, partnership, or support, to make the presentation more effective

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Items to look out for	5 point Scale	Remarks / Feedback
1.	Did the speaker speak with confidence? • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energetic Start	3	Satisfactory Satisfactory Good Poor
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume?	3	You maintained a good tone, however, your speed of delivery was somewhat rapid, which made a few words difficult to understand.
3.	Did they use any gestures with their hands or body while speaking?	3	You used some gestures with your hands and body while speaking, although your posture could be improved for better engagement.
4.	Did they have expressions on their faces?	3	You had a noticeable smile and made decent eye contact, which helped convey your expressions.
5.	Who are you and what are your skills, expertise, personality traits ?	4	You effectively introduced yourself, showcasing your skills and personality traits, particularly your compassion and empathy towards seniors.
6.	Why are you the best person to fit this role?	4	You demonstrated a strong passion for the cause and highlighted your relevant skills, making a compelling case for why you're the best fit for this role.
7.	How are you different from others?	4	You differentiated yourself from others by emphasizing your unique blend of business, technology, and community-building skills.
8.	What value do you bring to the role?	4	You bring a deep understanding of the senior market and a scalable, human-centered tech solution to address their needs, offering a powerful blend of profit, purpose, and social impact.
9.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	4	Your speech had a clear structure, starting with a hook, followed by a body that outlined your solution, and concluding with a call to action, making it easy to follow.

10.	How was the quality of research for the topic? Did the student's speech demonstrate a good depth? Did they cite the sources of research properly?	4	Your research on the topic appeared thorough, demonstrating a good depth of understanding, although you didn't explicitly cite sources, your data and statistics seemed well-founded.
11.	How creatively did the student present the video?	3	You presented the video in a fairly creative way, using a mix of interactive sessions, virtual events, and exclusive podcasts to engage your audience.
12.	How convinced were you with the overall speech on the topic? Was it persuasive? Will you give them the job/opportunity?	4	I was reasonably convinced by your overall speech, and while it was somewhat persuasive, I would consider giving you the opportunity to discuss your proposal further, as your passion and commitment to the cause are evident.