

Anuja
12 August 2025

Influence Quotient: 64/100

Overall Evaluation Summary

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- Your topic on pace and pauses in communication was clearly defined and well presentable.
- You provided a balanced view of the subject, explaining how both too fast and too slow can be problematic.
- Your mention of research provided credibility to your talk and the direct communication style was engaging for listeners.

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- You could work on delivering more dynamic features in your speech as it was quite monotonous.
- Your ending could have been more impactful as it did not create a long lasting impression.

- Insight on real life examples would have created a more engaging view.
- Repetition of points, like emphasis on 'correct pace' occurred quite a bit, which could otherwise be used to provide additional information.
- Although the topic was well discussed, there was scope for brevity and succinct explanation.

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Items to look out for	5 point Scale	Remarks / Feedback
1.	Did the speaker speak with confidence? • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energetic Start	4	Satisfactory Satisfactory Good Poor
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume?	3	You maintained a relatively high tone throughout, but varied in terms of pace. The speaking speed was high which made it a bit challenging to follow at times.
3.	Did they use any gestures with their hands or body while speaking?	4	Yes, based on the video metrics, you used hand gestures and maintained good eye contact, though the start could have been a bit more energetic.
4.	Did they have expressions on their faces?	3	Yes, there were expressions on the speaker's face indicating engagement, but there is space for more frequent and varied expressions.
5.	Who are you and what are your skills, expertise, personality traits ?	2	The speaker did talk about certain aspects but there was lack of direct introduction or talk about their personal skills and traits.
6.	Why are you the best person to fit this role?	1	This question isn't applicable as the speaker didn't mention any specific role he/she fits into based on the transcript.
7.	How are you different from others?	1	This question isn't applicable as the speaker did not contrast himself/herself with others.
8.	What value do you bring to the role?	1	This question isn't directly applicable in this context since the speaker didn't discuss specific values they bring to a role.
9.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	4	Yes, the speech had a clear opening, body and conclusion structure.
10.	How was the quality of research for the topic? Did the student's speech demonstrate a good depth? Did they cite the sources of research properly?	3	The content mentioned in the speech indicates a good level of research, especially the mention of "120 words per minute", but no specific sources were cited.

11.	How creatively did the student present the video?	3	The presentation was simple with vital points mentioned. It can incorporate more creative elements to capture the attention of the audience.
12.	How convinced were you with the overall speech on the topic? Was it persuasive? Will you give them the job/opportunity?	3	The speech was informative but needs improvement on being persuasive. The decision to offer a job or opportunity would vary based on the content and expectations for specific roles.