

Hello
12 August 2025

Influence Quotient: 94/100

Overall Evaluation Summary

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- You showed a strong understanding of your educational background and how it shapes your career aspirations.
- You have demonstrated an entrepreneurial mindset, revealing your desires to become a startup consultant and eventually start your own firm.
- You've successfully highlighted your leadership skills by bringing up your involvement in the student council and your own initiative, BeyondMess.

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- You could improve by specifying more about the nature of your involvement in technical and cultural clubs.

- It would be beneficial to provide more information about your M.Tech degree, perhaps mentioning specific courses or projects that you have undertaken.
- A brief overview of your responsibilities or achievements as sports secretary would help to showcase your leadership experience.
- During your presentation, you could delve deeper into the reasons behind your choice of pursuing Electronics and Product Design, providing more context and details would make your motivation more clear.
- Another improvement would be to mention any achievements or results obtained from your BeyondMess Initiative.

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Items to look out for	5 point Scale	Remarks / Feedback
1.	Did the speaker speak with confidence? • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energetic Start	4	Satisfactory Satisfactory Good Needs Improvement
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume?	3	Your tone and volume were consistent throughout the speech; however, there were instances where the speed of your delivery was quite fast. Try to maintain a steady, natural pace for clarity.
3.	Did they use any gestures with their hands or body while speaking?	4	Yes, your body language suggested that you were engaged in the conversation. Your posture and eye contact were good, but your energy level at the start was a bit low.
4.	Did they have expressions on their faces?	4	Yes, expressions were visible on your face given your score on the smiling metric and maintained decent eye contact.
5.	Who are you and what are your skills, expertise, personality traits ?	4	Yes, you introduced yourself, provided an overview of your skills, and subtly touched upon your personality traits.
6.	Why are you the best person to fit this role?	4	You are well suited for this role due to your self-discipline, experience in entrepreneurship, and your 3D approach of determination, devotion, and dedication.
7.	How are you different from others?	4	Your eagerness to explore and enhance the startup ecosystem, and your active involvement in student council sets you apart.
8.	What value do you bring to the role?	4	You seem to bring value in terms of your technical prowess in electronics and system engineering, leadership skills, and strong passion for the startup industry.
9.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	4	Yes, your speech was well structured with a clear introduction, body discussing your experience and skills, and a conclusion inviting further queries.

10.	How was the quality of research for the topic? Did the student's speech demonstrate a good depth? Did they cite the sources of research properly?	4	The depth and quality of the speech was good. While there wasn't explicit mention of any research sources, your practical experience in e-commerce and student council speaks to your level of understanding.
11.	How creatively did the student present the video?	4	The presentation of your video was creative, as you revealed more about your skills and experiences in a systematic manner.
12.	How convinced were you with the overall speech on the topic? Was it persuasive? Will you give them the job/opportunity?	4	The overall speech was persuasive and conveyed your dedication and motivation. Whether to give you the job or opportunity would largely depend on the specific role and company fit, but you made a strong case for consideration.