

Someone I dont know

12 August 2025

Influence Quotient: 66/100

Overall Evaluation Summary

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- You mentioned your specific job position and dream company clearly which shows your determination and orientation.
- Your academic background and project work suggest you are strongly aligned with the applied AI field.
- You revealed your personality through hobbies and personal likes, showing you're prepared for personal as well as technical questions.

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- You could elaborate more on the projects you mentioned, such as 'LLM for its privacy protection' and 'CNN, PCI shift'. Providing more details would demonstrate your knowledge and skills better.

- When talking about weaknesses, it's more relevant to mention something that could impact your job and how you're working to overcome it.
- Your strengths could be articulated more clearly by indicating specific skills or experiences rather than current work projects.
- Your question at the end was very specific and relevant, but including a more general question could also display your broader interest in the company.
- You could include more details about your M.Tech program to show how it prepares you for the applied AI Scientist role at Google.

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Items to look out for	5 point Scale	Remarks / Feedback
1.	Did the speaker speak with confidence? • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energetic Start	3	Satisfactory Satisfactory Good Poor
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume while delivering the speech/presentation?	4	The tone and volume were appropriate throughout the speech, though maintaining a steady speed in delivery could enhance clarity.
3.	Did they use any gestures with their hands or body while speaking?	2	Your gestures were not detailed enough from the transcript, but it suggests a lack of varied gestures. Incorporating intentional gestures could engage the audience more effectively.
4.	Did they have expressions on their faces?	3	Based on the video metrics, you maintained decent posture and eye contact, with a moderate level of smiling which indicates some expression on your face. There is room for a more energetic start.
5.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	4	The speech covered an opening, body, and conclusion, but could benefit from a clearer and more distinct conclusion to summarize your points effectively.
6.	Did the speaker keep the presentation engaging by adding relevant examples, anecdotes and data to back their content?	2	The presentation was primarily informational and could have included more relevant examples or anecdotes to keep the audience captivated.
7.	Was the overall "Objective" of the speech delivered clearly?	3	The objective, your aspiration to join Google as an Applied AI Scientist, was delivered but lacked a strong, compelling closure. It showed your qualifications but could highlight how these align more powerfully with Google's goals.
8.	Was the content of the presentation/speech to the point, or did it include unnecessary details that may have distracted or confused the audience?	3	The content was mostly to the point, though the mention of personal preferences such as sweets could detract from the professional focus.

9.	Was the content of the presentation/speech relevant to the objective of the presentation?	4	The content was relevant to the overall objective, introducing your academic qualifications and project experiences directly related to the role applied for.
10.	Was the content of the presentation/speech clear and easy to understand?	4	The content was generally clear and understandable, though simplifying or explaining technical jargon could improve comprehensibility for broader audiences.
11.	Did the speaker demonstrate credibility? Will you trust the speaker?	4	You demonstrated credibility by mentioning your academic background and relevant projects, making you a trustworthy candidate for the role.
12.	Did the speaker explain how the speech or topic of the presentation would benefit the audience and what they could gain from it?	2	You did not explicitly explain how the presentation would benefit the audience, leaving a gap in demonstrating its direct value to them.
13.	Did the speaker make an emotional connection with the audience ?	2	The speech could have forged a stronger emotional connection by sharing more personal stories or reasons driving your career choice.
14.	Overall, were you convinced/ persuaded with the speaker's view on the topic?	3	While your qualifications were convincing, the overall speech would persuade more if there was a deeper connection made between your skills and how they align with Google's mission and values.
