

qweqrgt
12 August 2025

Influence Quotient: 80/100

Overall Evaluation Summary

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- Your clear and detailed introduction of your academic background and career aspirations show that you're confident and ambitious
- You have shown entrepreneurship and leadership skills through your involvement with 'BeyondMess' and your goal of becoming a startup consultant.
- Your prior experience in student council and clubs suggests that you are a well-rounded individual who can multitask and take responsibilities.

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- Throughout your presentation, certain words and phrases were overused like 'So'. Moderating the amount of such transition words can increase the effectiveness of your speech.

- You could elaborate more on your experience with 'BeyondMess', such as the challenges faced, the skills gained or the impact it had on your career.
- While 'buzzing domain' is quite informal. Using a more professional terminology could be more advantageous.
- Instead of directing to search for 'BeyondMess' on Google, provide direct information or highlight significant contributions or achievements of it.
- It would be beneficial to provide more specific examples of your leadership, management and technical capabilities in action rather than listing them.

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Items to look out for	5 point Scale	Remarks / Feedback
1.	Did the speaker speak with confidence? • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energetic Start	3	Satisfactory Satisfactory Good Needs Improvement
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume?	3	Your tone was quite low and would have benefited from more variation to engage the listeners. The speed was good, however, maintaining a more consistent volume could have improved overall clarity and tone.
3.	Did they use any gestures with their hands or body while speaking?	3	Yes, there were some gestures evident during your speech, but overall your energy at the start could have been higher. Maintaining a good posture and smile helps engage the audience.
4.	Did they have expressions on their faces?	3	There were some expressions on your face as observed by your maintenance of eye contact and occasional smile, but there could have been more.
5.	Who are you and what are your skills, expertise, personality traits ?	4	Yes, you were able to introduce yourself, talk about your skills, and even express a bit about your personality traits and future aspirations.
6.	Why are you the best person to fit this role?	4	Your determination towards entrepreneurship, along with your technical and management capabilities showcased through initiative 'BeyondMess' make you fit for this role.
7.	How are you different from others?	4	Your keenness on boosting startups technically and in management ways makes you distinct from others.
8.	What value do you bring to the role?	4	You bring in technical expertise along with an entrepreneurial spirit, inclination towards e-commerce and leadership capabilities.

9.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	3	Yes, the speech did have a structure of opening, body, and conclusion though the opening could have been more energetic.
10.	How was the quality of research for the topic? Did the student's speech demonstrate a good depth? Did they cite the sources of research properly?	3	Your knowledge about your domain was clear, but no reference or sources for the facts or studies mentioned was presented.
11.	How creatively did the student present the video?	2	The video wasn't presented in a very creative manner, it followed more of a traditional presentation style.
12.	How convinced were you with the overall speech on the topic? Was it persuasive? Will you give them the job/opportunity?	4	Apart from few adjustments in speech delivery and presentation style, the overall speech was convincing, demonstrating your focus towards startups and entrepreneurship, and hence we could consider providing you with the opportunity.