

Ayush
07 August 2025

Influence Quotient: 88/100

Overall Evaluation Summary

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- Your presentation started with impactful, statistic-based information, catching the attention immediately.
- You clearly stated the problem and gradually unfolded your solution, maintaining a logical flow in the presentation.
- Your conviction and emotion were evident when you talked about your mission. This adds a human touch to your presentation, connecting more deeply with the audience.

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- While you mentioned the services offered, explaining how these services specifically combat the issues of loneliness, boredom, mobility, and depression can add more weight to your claims.

- You emphasized the market potential in India, it would be beneficial to back it up with some specific data or comparison.
- The portion where you revealed your own perspective, painted a picture of why you are behind this initiative. Elaborating on this with some personal stories can make it more relatable.
- When discussing potential for AI integration, giving some examples of how AI can amplify your platform's capabilities can be more convincing.
- You mentioned having 'rich ethical senior behavioral data'. Providing examples or briefly explaining how you manage to have this data ethically can prevent potential doubts in investors' minds.

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Items to look out for	5 point Scale	Remarks / Feedback
1.	Did the speaker speak with confidence? • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energetic Start	4	Satisfactory Satisfactory Good Poor
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume?	3	You maintained a consistent tone throughout, however, there could be more variation in your speaking speed and volume for better engagement.
3.	Did they use any gestures with their hands or body while speaking?	3	Yes, you used gestures. Though your posture and eye contact were good, a bit more energy at the start would have enhanced your overall presentation.
4.	Did they have expressions on their faces?	3	Yes, your facial expressions are noticeable through your occasional smiles. Adding more emotions could improve the viewer's engagement.
5.	Who are you and what are your skills, expertise, personality traits ?	4	Yes, you demonstrated your skills and empathy with clear examples of your work with senior citizens.
6.	Why are you the best person to fit this role?	4	You justify being the best fit for this role by showcasing your business, technology and community-building skills, as well as your compassion and care for seniors.
7.	How are you different from others?	4	Your deep understanding of the senior market and the unique tech solutions you devised to target the related issues make you stand out.
8.	What value do you bring to the role?	4	The value you bring to the role lies in your business acumen, expertise in technology and your deep empathy towards the target group.
9.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	4	Yes, your speech was well-structured with a clear opening where you addressed the problem, the body included services offered by your platform, and concluded with a strong appeal to invest.

10.	How was the quality of research for the topic? Did the student's speech demonstrate a good depth? Did they cite the sources of research properly?	3	Your research was in-depth and your speech showed a good understanding of the subject. However, citing sources for your data would have strengthened your credibility.
11.	How creatively did the student present the video?	4	Your creativity was evident by the way you integrated statistics to highlight the problem and how your platform provides solutions.
12.	How convinced were you with the overall speech on the topic? Was it persuasive? Will you give them the job/opportunity?	4	The overall speech was compelling and persuasive. Given the clarity and conviction in your idea, you have demonstrated strong potential for the role.