

Ayush
07 August 2025

Influence Quotient: 92/100

Overall Evaluation Summary

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- You were able to make strong, effective points about the current predicament and future potential of the market for seniors.
- Your introduction of the Smiling Souls solution was articulate and well-structured, showing a clear understanding of the product.
- The way you tied business objectives to a strong sense of compassion and care exemplified a crucial balance between profit and purpose.

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- While you thoroughly covered your business, more emphasis on your personal qualifications and previous achievements could provide the needed testimony of your capabilities.

- You might want to add more concrete facts and figures related to the market potential to strengthen your business case.
- Details about financial projections, revenue growth or how the funds will be utilized can add more credibility to your pitch.
- In your pitch, the business's growth strategy wasn't given much attention, elaborating on it might enhance stakeholder confidence.
- A few more details about the user experience or customer testimonials could make your solution more compelling.

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Items to look out for	5 point Scale	Remarks / Feedback
1.	Did the speaker speak with confidence? • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energetic Start	4	Satisfactory Satisfactory Good Poor
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume?	3	You maintained a calm and steady tone throughout your speech, though varying your volume and speed could bring more dynamism to the presentation.
3.	Did they use any gestures with their hands or body while speaking?	3	Yes, your gestures were noticeable. There's room for improvement in starting energetically and maintaining confident postures.
4.	Did they have expressions on their faces?	4	Yes, there were expressions on your face evident by eye contact and your occasional smiles.
5.	Who are you and what are your skills, expertise, personality traits ?	4	Yes, you were able to introduce yourself, your skills, and your compassionate outlook effectively.
6.	Why are you the best person to fit this role?	4	You seem to best fit this role due to your strong foundation in business, technology, and community building, coupled with your empathetic perspective.
7.	How are you different from others?	4	Your differentiation lies in your mission-driven approach, leveraging your personal strengths of compassion and empathy in your work.
8.	What value do you bring to the role?	4	The value you bring lies in a human-centered solution addressing a real societal issue, which shows your ability to innovate and empathize.
9.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	4	Yes, your speech had a clear structure of opening by identifying a problem, body detailing the solution you offer, and conclusion emphasizing the social impact.

10.	How was the quality of research for the topic? Did the student's speech demonstrate a good depth? Did they cite the sources of research properly?	4	The depth of your research appeared substantial with references to societal issues, market scale, and industry trends, though direct sources were not cited.
11.	How creatively did the student present the video?	4	Your creativity was shown in the narrative style you employed to present your mission and the problem you aim to solve.
12.	How convinced were you with the overall speech on the topic? Was it persuasive? Will you give them the job/opportunity?	4	Overall, the speech was persuasive and engaging, indicating your suitability for this role. Your drive and compassion make you a strong candidate for the opportunity.