

Ayush
07 August 2025

Influence Quotient: 96/100

Overall Evaluation Summary

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- You presented the problem and its impact with clear statistics, which draws immediate attention and underscores the relevance and urgency of the issue.
- Your vision of 'The Smiling Souls' and its goals for senior care are comprehensively outlined and you show your in-depth understanding of the target audience.
- Your use of poignant and impactful language to narrate your personal transformation during COVID reveals passion and genuine empathy towards the issue at hand, which could strengthen trust with potential partners or investors.

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- You could improve the flow of your presentation by providing transitions between sections or ideas for a cohesive narrative.
- While statistics were used effectively to present the problem, similar data about the potential success or impact of 'The Smiling Souls' would improve your argument.
- More specific details about your background and your expertise would further convince your audience of your capability to lead this venture.
- Your mention of 'ethical senior behavioral data' and 'AI integration' were rather abrupt, further elaboration regarding how these would be utilized for improving service would be beneficial.
- Your presentation ended quite abruptly and could have been rounded off with persuasive closing remarks, summarizing the key points and leaving the audience with a lasting impression.

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Items to look out for	5 point Scale	Remarks / Feedback
1.	Did the speaker speak with confidence? • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energetic Start	4	Satisfactory Satisfactory Good Poor
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume?	3	You maintained a good steady tone. However, better control on your speaking speed and volume would enhance the quality of your presentation making it more engaging.
3.	Did they use any gestures with their hands or body while speaking?	3	Yes, some manual gestures were visible in your presentation based on the video metrics assessment. Enhancing hand movements and body language can effectively support your speech.
4.	Did they have expressions on their faces?	3	Your facial expressions were moderately visible, reflecting openness and relatability. You can consider adding more expressive reactions to engage your audience.
5.	Who are you and what are your skills, expertise, personality traits ?	4	Yes, you introduced yourself well, highlighting both your skills and your personality traits which effectively demonstrated your passion for the job.
6.	Why are you the best person to fit this role?	4	You appeared to be a suitable fit for this role due to your empathy towards seniors and strong foundation in business, technology, and community building.
7.	How are you different from others?	4	Your unique approach to serving a growing yet underserved demographic sets you apart from others.
8.	What value do you bring to the role?	4	You bring empathy and a strong tech-savvy business acumen to the role, in addition to the potential for innovative tech integration.
9.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	4	The structure of your speech was adequate with a proper introduction, body, and conclusion, selling your concept effectively.

10.	How was the quality of research for the topic? Did the student's speech demonstrate a good depth? Did they cite the sources of research properly?	5	Your research on the subject was thorough and insightful, demonstrating depth and a strong understanding of the senior market.
11.	How creatively did the student present the video?	5	The presentation of your video was creative with thoughtful use of statistical data, making it both informative and engaging.
12.	How convinced were you with the overall speech on the topic? Was it persuasive? Will you give them the job/opportunity?	5	I found your speech quite persuasive, especially with the projection of market growth and potential revenues. Your passion for the issue at hand was evident and makes you a compelling candidate for the opportunity.