

Ayush
07 August 2025

Influence Quotient: 84/100

Overall Evaluation Summary

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- You displayed a thorough understanding of the challenges seniors face and you have identified a niche market need.
- You clearly articulated the solution your platform is offering.
- Your passion towards the cause was evident as you discussed the inspiration and motivation behind Smiling Souls.

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- In your pitch, you focused heavily on the issues but didn't quantify the solution. Dilute the problem slightly and elaborate more on how your product solves those.

- Consider incorporating feedback and testimonials from seniors who have already benefitted from your platform - showing impact.
- You asked for an investment without specifying the amount and what the funds would be used for. This information could be critical for potential investors.
- You didn't mention any competitors or why your solution is better compared to other products in the market.
- You made broad statements about the potential of the Indian senior market but did not provide specific projections for Smiling Souls.

Detailed Evaluation Metrics

No.	Items to look out for	5 point Scale	Remarks / Feedback
1.	Did the speaker speak with confidence? • Posture • Smile • Eye Contact • Energetic Start	3	Satisfactory Satisfactory Good Poor
2.	Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume?	2	You maintained a consistent tone and voice volume throughout your presentation although a variety in these aspects would have added more interest to your delivery.
3.	Did they use any gestures with their hands or body while speaking?	2	You made good eye contact and maintained decent posture. However, you could have started off a bit more energetically and used more gestures for better audience engagement.
4.	Did they have expressions on their faces?	3	You had a steady and moderate amount of facial expressions, mainly noticeable by your smiling throughout the course of your presentation.
5.	Who are you and what are your skills, expertise, personality traits ?	4	Yes, you introduced yourself competently and reviewed your skills and personality traits, by framing your compassion, empathy, and care for seniors, along with business technology skills.
6.	Why are you the best person to fit this role?	4	You come across as compassionate and driven with a business-technology background, and these qualities could make you the best fit for this role.
7.	How are you different from others?	4	Your mission of utilizing technology to serve a social cause differentiates you from others.
8.	What value do you bring to the role?	4	You bring a blend of technological prowess and human-centered empathy to the role, aiming to directly impact the senior population's well-being.
9.	Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?	4	Your speech had a well-defined structure divided into clear opening, body, and conclusion sections.

10.	How was the quality of research for the topic? Did the student's speech demonstrate a good depth? Did they cite the sources of research properly?	4	The quality of your research was quite strong, and your speech demonstrated a good depth by citing specific statistics pertaining to senior citizen issues.
11.	How creatively did the student present the video?	4	You presented the video creatively, using the powerful tool of personal narrative to immerse your audience into the issues you're passionate about.
12.	How convinced were you with the overall speech on the topic? Was it persuasive? Will you give them the job/opportunity?	4	You were persuasive up to a significant extent, demonstrating strong potential for the intended role. Given this performance, I would suggest further consideration for the opportunity.