Overall Evaluation Summary

Qualitative Analysis - Positive

- You clearly state your name and the position you're applying for, indicating your awareness of the role.
- You deliquesce about your academic background and projects, demonstrating your skills and qualifications.
- Your self-assessment of strengths and weaknesses shows self-awareness and honesty.

Qualitative Analysis - Areas of Improvement

- You could work on highlighting a broader range of experiences rather than focusing heavily on your academic projects.

- Your answer to the weakness question might be made more professionally relevant. Employers often look for weaknesses that indicate a lack of skill or knowledge that can be improved.
- Maintain clarity when discussing your strengths; some information was a bit unclear.
- Avoid using jargon or specific technical language without explaining it as this could lose non-technical viewers.
- Your question for the interviewer reflects an interest in the company's future moves, but try asking something more about the Applying AI Scientist role, it would reflect your interest better.

| 1.  | Did the speaker speak with confidence?• Posture• Smile• Eye Contact• Energetic Start                  | 3             | SatisfactorySatisfactoryGoodPoor                                                                                                                           |
| 2.  | Did the speaker vary their tone, speed, volume while delivering the speech/presentation?                              | 3             | Your tone was consistently neutral and could benefit from some variation. The delivery speed was reasonable, but a slight adjustment for certain key points would enhance engagement.              |
| 3.  | Did they use any gestures with their hands or body while speaking?                                                    | 2             | The transcription does not provide explicit details on gestures, but maintaining an open posture and subtle hand movements could have helped in reinforcing your points.                           |
| 4.  | Did they have expressions on their faces?                                                                             | 4             | Your facial expressions appeared to include some degree of smile and engagement, which can positively impact the interaction. Maintaining strong eye contact suggests attentiveness and sincerity. |
| 5.  | Did the speech have a structure of Opening, Body and Conclusion?                                                      | 4             | The speech followed a clear structure with an introduction, detailing your background, and a conclusion by asking the interviewer a question. This helps in maintaining coherence.                 |
| 6.  | Did the speaker keep the presentation engaging by adding relevant examples, anecdotes and data to back their content? | 3             | You shared examples of your academic projects, however, more specifics or anecdotal examples would strengthen engagement.                                                                          |
| 7.  | Was the overall "Objective" of the speech delivered clearly?                                                          | 3             | The primary objective of expressing your qualifications and interest in the position at Google was apparent. However, emphasizing your unique attributes further could improve clarity.            |

| 8.  | Was the content of the presentation/speech to the point, or did it include unnecessary details that may have distracted or confused the audience? | 4 | The speech contained mostly relevant information without significant digressions. However, some personal details like hobbies might have been minimized.                               |
| 9.  | Was the content of the presentation/speech relevant to the objective of the presentation?                                                         | 4 | The content was mostly relevant to your application for the role and demonstrated your qualifications, aligning well with your employment goal.                                        |
| 10. | Was the content of the presentation/speech clear and easy to understand?                                                                          | 4 | The content was generally clear and easy to follow, although expanding on technical expertise could provide added value.                                                               |
| 11. | Did the speaker demonstrate credibility? Will you trust the speaker?                                                                              | 4 | Your educational background and project experience contribute to your credibility. Elaborating more on their impact would enhance trust further.                                       |
| 12. | Did the speaker explain how the speech or topic of the presentation would benefit the audience and what they could gain from it?                  | 3 | The speech indirectly hinted at benefiting the audience by connecting your expertise with potential contributions to Google, yet a direct emphasis would be more effective.            |
| 13. | Did the speaker make an emotional connection with the audience ?                                                                                  | 3 | There was limited emotional connection with the audience, which could be improved by aligning your story more closely with the company's values and mission.                           |
| 14. | Overall, were you convinced/ persuaded with the speaker's view on the topic?                                                                      | 3 | While your qualifications were convincing, a more dynamic delivery combined with a stronger articulation of how you can address the company's specific needs would be more persuasive. |
